

Constitution

By: George Washington, James Madison, and other founding fathers

When: September 17, 1787, but it was not ratified by the necessary nine states until 1788

What: The U.S. Constitution established America's national government and fundamental laws, and guaranteed certain basic rights for its citizens.